

Auerbach Pollock Friedlander and Auerbach Glasow Announce Looking Into Our Future

With 50 years of providing industry leading consulting and design in theatre, performance and immersive environments, architectural lighting and AV technologies, Auerbach Pollock Friedlander and Auerbach Glasow continue to grow and evolve. Today we proudly announce the appointment and elevation of Steven Friedlander to Chief Executive Officer and Tom Neville to President.

With the addition of our new Partners, Brad Kisicki and Patrick McCue, the hiring of Pete O'Neil to lead our AV Technology practice, and the continuing leadership of Directors / Officers Patricia Glasow and Robert Hill, we are poised to accelerate our growth well into the future.

"In nearly 30 years with the firm, I've never felt more positive about our direction. Our team is experienced, knowledgeable and poised to take on new challenges."

- Steve Friedlander, CEO
